MAYOR PATRICK BROWN

Dear Adam Wilford,

On behalf of Council and the City of Brampton, I would like to extend a sincere thank you to the members of Credit Valley Conservation for your ongoing commitment to Brampton youth.

Recently, the City of Brampton was awarded the Platinum Status Youth Friendly Community designation from Play Works, a program supported by Parks and Recreation Ontario, for a third time! This recognition was achieved as a result of the outstanding collaboration and collective strength of several community organizations such as yours.

We are grateful for the unyielding dedication and efforts made by your organization to support the growth and development of Brampton youth. Particularly during the trying times posed by COVID-19, your work and commitment to ensuring youth are engaged has been invaluable.

As one of the youngest cities in Canada, it is integral that our community continues to offer a wide range of diverse opportunities for safe and engaging youth development, including sports, drama, dance, music and arts, leadership, and civic engagement. Your contributions to ensuring that some of the youngest members of our community are well supported throughout their development has not gone unnoticed.

I congratulate you on this achievement, and once again, thank you for making such a positive impact in our community.

Sincerely,
